Three Questions Answered.

FRANCES E. WILLARD.

Three questions constantly recur in the correspondence of the five general officers, four delegated to me the responsibility of will now try to do as follows: 1. " What does the word christian mean in the name of the W. C. T. U.?"

It means that the origin, auspices and control of the society are christian, not by plied. Subsequent numbers will appear reg any specific and arbitrary action, but in the nature of the case. It means that the Bible is our chief corner-stone and that the chris- street, New York, tian home, the christian school and the christian church have been our nurseries, our training schools and our military camps, as soldiers of the Cross. It means that we have as our supreme purpose and desire the build ing up of His kingdom in the earth whose sway means purity and peace and universal protherhood. But it does not mean a creed test. Instead of this, it proposes a character test, viz., that those who join us as honorary and working members (men coming under the first and women under the second head) shall be persons willing to ally themselves with a movement having such a purpose as I have described. If they choose us we believe it will e safe for us to choose them, and "as a working hypothesis" this plan has been thirty ballots cast, all of which Mr. Gould New and Second Hand School our societies is not a church letter, but the pledge of total abstinence. After one is in, he will find himself admitted to a temple of worship where the Master of Assemblies leads, listening to the music of hymns he learned to love long years ago, and invited to earnest ministries in home and church and state, all based upon faith in and obedience toward Him "who went about doing good." "What is the exact meaning of the W.

C. T. U. pledge?" It includes, by explicit statement, total abstinence from all distilled drinks and from every variety of wine, beer and eider. Some pledges, by using only the general term "in-toxicating beverages," leave room for private interpretation in this regard; but our form of pledge does not. While there are several ways of wording it (each state and local union exercising its own discretion in this respect), there is uniformity throughout the nation in this clear-cut definition relative to the classes of drinks from which we are totally to abstain. The form of the National W. C. T. U. pledge (recommended to all others) is as follows:

"I hereby promise, God helping me, to abstain from all distilled, fermented and malt fiquors, including wine and cider, and to employ all proper means to discourage the use of and traffic in the same.

But many unions insert the words "as a beverage," while others specifically pledge against any use of alcoholics as a medicine or in cooking. The foregoing National pledge, adopted at Chicago in 1877, and the and that execution thereof may be granted the peti- most sharply defined that I have ever seen, does away with any use of alcoholics in any way, at any time. This is what science and up what we believe to be the true standard. at liberty to insert the words "as a beverage," and many do so, leaving to each member's conscience the decision about the use of intoxicants as a medicine and in cooking. Our tocal unions are, however, strongly advised to adopt the stronger pledge.

3. "A difficulty or division has come up in our ranks" (about finance, rival leaders, politics, any one of a multitude of causes that goes to prove once more the "humanness of the saints); "will you advise as what to do, or write a letter that we can read to the union?"

No, beloved. Your general officers can serve the interests, dear alike to your heart.

No, beloved. Your general officers can serve the interests, dear alike to your heart.

serve the interests, dear alike to your heart and theirs, in better ways than in medding in local difficulties, of which they cannot get an impartial knowledge and in which their interference would but complicate the situa tion. You know as well as we do that "a soft answer" is the sovereign, because the divine, method by which to turn away wrath. The only method by which railway trains can avoid running into each other is for each to give the other the whole road. When sour antagonist comes against you, don't be there, i. c., give all the opportunity for criticism and reproaches to those who desire to offer them. Very likely they are merited, in which case acknowledge it and ask frankly for pardon. It they are not, try to explain with perfect kindness. In any event, "being cased, comes into court and represents that he is now prepared to render his final account as such executor and files the same:

Thereupon it is ordered that Monday, the 18th day of April next, at ten o'clock in the forencom, be assigned for examining and allowing such account, and that the beire at law of said deceased and all different in each; the perception of color is reviled, revile not again." But at heart they are all and county, and show cause, if any there be, why no said account should not be allowed:

And it is further ordered that said executor lise, and the conclusion will always make for Ar. Paw Paw 18 00 5 00 the notice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendency of said account and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published to the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the celestial test: "By this shall all men are the know that ye are My disciples, because ye in the Thun Northean Nen, a newspaper printed and sirculating in said county, for three successive words at least previous to said day of hearing.

Tousd's ORBIN N. HILTON, Judge of Frobate. movement is prayer to God and consequent good will toward our neighbor. Dear, mystical "neighbor," so like us in self-love, in desire to succeed, in temptation to sin! Because we are sorry for ourselves, cumbered and clogged as we are with earthly dross, can we not be sorry for him, and show a little of of that indulgence toward him which is a quantity so constant in our treatment of ourselves?

Words of Commendation.

The following communication would have been more appropriate prior to election than afterwards: nevertheless, it really ought not to be waste-basketed:

Antwerp, April 1st, 1887. EDITOR TRUE NORTHERNER:

Yours of March 30th states as a part of the republican ticket of Antwerp, James Bale, commissioner of highways. I wish to correct the statement. Mr. J. C. Gould received the unanimous vote of the cancus: and more, Mr. Gould's administration of last year was so satisfactory that no other name was presented to the caucus; there were over

Now, Mr. Editor, I have felt for some time as though I wanted to give some expression of my appreciation of those of our journals throughout the state that have so nobly defended temperance and labored for the pas sage of the prohibitory constitutional amend- Subscriptions received for all leading papers ment. And more; it is significant that so many of those of noble manhood who fought for the defense of National life and the freedom of the enslaved, are to-day battling for a grander deliverance and the overthrow of a wider-spread enslavement than the past system of slavery in the southern states.

I trust the TRUE NORTHERNER and its many allies may long live to defend every moral principle underlying the great and noble fabric of these United States. JAMES BALE, Antwerp, Mich.
